

Becris Armando: A Brief Bio

Becris Armando, born in 1955 in Tijuana, Baja California, is a Mexican painter based in Rosarito, renowned for his vibrant oil paintings that capture the soul of Baja's coastal and border landscapes. Specializing in evocative fisherman scenes, his works vividly portray the rugged lives of local fishermen, blending realistic detail with emotional depth to honor the region's maritime heritage. A key figure in Rosarito's art scene, Becris exhibits at Polo's Fine Art Gallery and has been featured in PBS's Crossing South, earning international praise for his depictions of Mexican culture and coastal life.